

Apple Tree Selections GFCE 2023

Braeburn

Red stripes with green background. Creamy white firm crisp flesh. Excellent flavor, tart and mildly sweet. Stores very well. Self-pollinating. Ripens Mid October. Zone 5.

Cortland

Dark red skin underlaid with stripes. Crisp, pure white flesh resists browning when cut. Good fresh or for cooking. Crisp tangy flavor similar to McIntosh. Pollinators: Fuji, Gala, Honeycrisp. Ripens Mid September. Zone 4.

Empire

Dark red skin. Crisp pure white flesh is slightly firmer than McIntosh. Good fresh or for cooking. Resists cedar rust. Crisp tangy flavor. Self-pollinating. Ripens late September. Zone 4.

Fuji

Pink stripes over a yellow-green background. Creamy white firm crisp flesh. Excellent sweet tart flavor. Stores very well. Self-pollinating. Ripens late October. Zone 5.

Gala

Bright red with a yellow background. The excellent flavor white flesh is firm, crisp, sweet and tart. Self-pollinating. Ripens early September. Zone 5.

Granny Smith

Grass-green firm fruit. Hard, crisp, white flesh. Moderately sweet, snappy flavor. Resists cedar rust. Good for fresh eating. Excellent for cooking. Self-pollinating. Ripens early September. Zone 6.

Honeycrisp

Scarlet red over a pale yellow background. Creamy white flesh has excellent sweet-tart flavor. Pollinator: Fuji. Ripens in Mid September. Zone 4.

Liberty

80% red with yellow-green blush. Crisp almost white flesh. Mild McIntosh flavor. Good fresh or for cooking. Immune to scab and cedar rust. Self-pollinating. Ripens Mid September. Zone 5.

Macoun

Dark red with a green background. Firm white flesh. Flavor similar to McIntosh. Resists cedar rust. Pollinators: Fuji, Gala, Honeycrisp, Pink Lady. Ripens late September. Zone 4

McIntosh

Solid bright red color. Crisp white flesh. Sweet, tart flavor. Best for fresh eating. Resists cedar rust. Pollinator: Gala. Ripens early September. Zone 4.

Pink Lady

Pink blush over yellow undertone. Creamy white tart-sweet flesh. Pollinator: Fuji. Ripens early October. Zone 5.

Triumph

Red skin with a green underlay. Good fresh and for cooking. Disease resistant. Pollinator: Macintosh or a white flowering Crab apple. Ripens late September. Zone 4